I hereby sign to say that:

1. The recipient project understand that the types and quantities of food delivered by Food for Charities will vary.
2. The recipient project understands that once food is received it becomes the property of the beneficiary project and that the donating supplier and Food for Charities accept no liability in respect thereof.
3. The recipient project confirms that it has effective procedures for the security of food provided by Food for Charities.
4. The recipient project confirms that the food will be used for charitable purposes only; and that it may not be sold, exchanged or used for profit in any other way. The recipient project will make all reasonable efforts to ensure that the food donations are used only to feed people who genuinely need the food.
5. In the event that any food supplied by Food for Charities is stolen or used for profit, the recipient project will inform Food for Charities immediately, who will in turn inform the supplier. Follow up confirmation must be made in writing and the incident must be reported to the police.
6. The recipient project undertakes to complete any monitoring and data collection requested by Food for Charities.
7. The recipient project understands that failure to comply with this agreement will result in the termination of supply of Food for Charities donated products.
